5TH SEPTEMBER 2020 | 6:00 PM - 7:30 PM IST

Sustainability in fashion is an approach where designers, manufacturers and consumers focus on the responsible production and disposal of fashion products. It involves the responsible treatment of every value-link to ensure the fair treatment of the human resources involved, as well as the entire lifecycle of a textile product from the fibre-level to its processing, weaving, sewing, packaging, and its responsible disposal, recycling or upcycling to minimize its damage on the environment. Slow Fashion is the concept of minimizing consumer buying patterns and inturn production volumes by increasing the longevity of each fashion product by improving its quality, regardless of the impact on price.

Can STUNNING fashion be SUSTAINABLE? What is SLOW FASHION? What does sustainability mean in the fashion industry? Tune in to hear voices of practitioners from Malaysia, America and India followed by a Short Film directed by Apoorva Marur.

THREE FOR 30

PHOTOGRAPHY - CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

unity, harmony and non-violence

The German Unity Day (German: Tag der Deutschen Einheit) is the National Day of Germany, celebrated on 3 October as a public holiday. It commemorates the anniversary of German reunification in 1990 when the Federal Republic of Germany (West Germany) and the German Democratic Republic (East Germany) were unified, so that for the first time since 1945 there existed a single German state. As Germany prepares to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the German National Day of Unity, this holiday has assumed even greater importance.

Gandhi Jayanti is an event celebrated in India to mark the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. It is celebrated annually on 2 October, and it is one of the three national holidays of India and is also celebrated as the International Day of Non-Violence.

Goethe-Zentrum Hyderabad invites you to participate in the celebration of both of these virtues of mankind through your lens! If you have a passion for clicking pictures – and you have pictures that symbolize UNITY or NON-VIOLENCE or both – then we want to hear from you!

THE BOOKS WE MADE

'The Books We Made' is a documentary inspired by the work of Urvashi Butalia and Ritu Menon, both of whom co-founded the first feminist publishing house in India: "Kali for Women". The film is about the joy and pain of surviving in two non-lucrative professions: that of writing for small, discerning audiences; and that of publishing, translating and promoting work barely known outside its own linguistic region in India. The film looks back on Butalia and Menon's thirty years in publishing, and focusses on the feminist politics and friendships that made this survival possible. Butalia and Menon chose to publish writing that had no audience at the time.
