KICKOFF / SYMPOSIUM

SAAI FACTORY

Hackathon on Art and AI

SAAI–Super Artistic AI–Factory is the first contemporary art based hackathon on artificial intelligence. SAAI Factory calls for hackers, artists, coders, designers, tech evangelists, creatives, and developers from all disciplines to explore artificial intelligence as a means and field of artistic practice. SAAI Factory kicked off with an international symposium offering the participants as well as anyone interested in Art and AI a spectrum of current perspectives and developments within the field. Through workshops the viewers were given access to technical knowledge surrounding machine learning that is being applied in artistic fields of music, sound, image, pictures, motion, movement, language and text. Through keynote speeches and input talks, the speakers sketched out the past, present and future of AI intertwined with Art.

REVISION

A film by Philip Scheffner

2012 · Documentary · 110 m · Romanian with English Subtitles

11 August 2021 | 18:30 hrs IST

In the early morning hours of 29 June 1992 in Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania, two people were found dead by harvest workers in a grain field near the Polish border. Officially, it was a hunting accident, a tragic mistaking of them for wild boar. The hunters were never convicted. The trial, which dragged on for years and in which crucial questions were not pursued, ended in an acquittal. Philip Scheffner deals with a detailed reconstruction of the case in his essayistic documentary REVISION.

MEMORY ROLL BY LALITHA LAJMI

art & soul

A Virtual Exhibition of Drawings by Shri Lalitha Lajmi

curated by Lina Vincent

In Collaboration with Gallery Art & Soul

19 Aug - 19 Sep 2021

The exhibition will present a broad selection of Lalitha Lajmi's works along with the recent drawings which have been drawn between March 2020 and September 2020 and are part of a scroll. They represent six months of artistic activity in solitude and act as an example of conceptual prowess at being able to draw from memory complex perspectives and anatomy. Lalitha uses the water stain that has been on the paper for years to act as a base to sketch the continuity of her drawings in grisaille and sepia tones. Through a vocabulary of an unequal distribution of images and perspectives within the same plane she narrates a layered history of the modern Indian woman. Like most of her work these drawings are autobiographical as they are imaginary.

Stay tuned for the link on our website and social media channels!

RENDEZVOUS WITH SENIORS

5 Stories, 3 Generations, 1 celebration - "Senior Citizen's Day 2021"

28 August 2021 | 18:30 hrs IST

The World Senior Citizen's Day is celebrated on 21 August each year. The celebration took place for the first time on 1 October 1991. It is a day to remember and celebrate the older generation and thank them for their immeasurable contributions.

We present to you this year a collage of everyday celebrations through five different stories. The aim of this presentation is to acknowledge the immense value and joy that is added by the presence of our elders at home. It portrays the connection between several generations by showcasing the time that they enjoy spending together doing what they love.

Do join us ONLINE as we pause for a while to celebrate our Seniors'.

THIS AND THAT - THE OLYMPICS 2020

India produced its best-ever show at the Olympics in Tokyo

Tokyo Olympics 2020 will be remembered in India for many firsts, like the first gold medal in athletics to the hockey men's team winning a medal after 41 years. However, there were many other performances this year where the athlete may not have ended up on top of the podium but have done India proud in the Games: Indian women's hockey team, Aditi Ashok (Golf), Bhavani Devi (Fencing), India Men's 4x400 relay team and Equestrian Fouaad Mirza. Bravo Team India for doing us all proud!!

German Gymnastics team receive widespread praise for wearing unitards at Tokyo Olympics

Germany bagged a total of 74 medals at the Olympics 2021 but the most striking feature we would like to acknowledge here is the country's progressive attitude to embrace change and how the German woman gymnasts made a statement with their outfits at the Tokyo Olympic Games — completely covering their arms and legs with full-body unitards. The team said their outfits were a protest against the "sexualization" of the sport. The looks were a stark departure from the sport's standard bikini-cut leotards. They are much more similar to the body-covering outfits worn by male gymnasts during their routines.
