Hyderabad Literary Festival (HLF) is an annual event that celebrates creativity in all its forms.

HLF is a multidisciplinary, multilingual event that draws over a hundred writers, artistes, academics, scholars, publishers from India and abroad each year.

Started in 2010, the Festival has emerged as an important event in the cultural calendar of the country. It represents the rich and cosmopolitan ethos of the twin cities of Hyderabad and Secunderabad, as well as the vibrant spirit of the modern Cyberabad.

HLF 2023 is organized by "Hyderabad Literary Trust" with the support of several literary and cultural organizations, and publishing houses.

HLF is a festival for all. Its programme includes conversations, panel discussions, readings, workshops, exhibitions, cultural programmes, film screenings, and events for college students and school children.

Date: 27 - 29 January, 2023

Venue: Vidyaranya High School

Open for All

THAT'S SO GERMAN!

GOETHE-ZENTRUM
KOOPERATIONSPARTNER

A Cartoonist's perspective by Artist Miguel Fernandez

Never too early to get things right.

Germans love to go to the hardware store and love to add all kinds of tools to their collection. According to the stereotype, they'll also have an exaggerated tendency of using the right tool to do things properly, otherwise you shouldn't even start working on a renovation project. This child knows how it goes.

Unsubtle Humor

The Germans are not known for their humor. As the American writer Mark Twain observed nearly 150 years ago, German jokes are not suitable for laughter. And when they do show their funny side, it invariably is overplayed.

A perplexing language

Three genders. the interplay of prepositions, cases and adjective endings- German grammar is undoubtedly complex. "Deutsche Sprache, schwere Sprache, ("German language, difficult language") a saying goes.

German punctuality: a myth?

Despite the widespread stereotype, funnily enough, neither German Airlines, nor railways are among the world's top 10 most punctual. Placing value on something and actually living up to it are two different things.
